

College of Human
Sciences
Ambassadors

What is an Ambassador?

- Represents College of Human Sciences through various recruitment events
- Ambassadors are storytellers - it is the stories people remember, not facts or dates, etc.
- Open to all majors in the college

“Your goal is to weave your experiences together, with some facts about the university, into a story that inspires future students to recognize their potential at [ISU]” -University of North Carolina Ambassador Handbook

Typical Events

- Daily Visits
- Academic Information Sessions
- EIS (Experience Iowa State) Days
- Day in the Life
- CHS Scholarship Recognition Event
- Majors Fair
- Lunch in the Tea Room
- Other CHS events

Responsibilities/Commitments

- Ability to serve for full school year (Fall & Spring)
- Monthly meetings
- Fall training
- 10 volunteer hours per semester

Why should YOU become an Ambassador?

- Leadership experience
- Ability to expand communication skills
- Share your experience & passion with others
- Connect with students - both at current and future students!
- Free stuff!
- Delicious breakfast once a month at meetings when they are held in person

Application Process

- Applications for the 2021-2022 academic year are due on March 19, 2021
- Applicants will be contacted via email to schedule their interviews the week of April 5
- Interviews will be held virtually the week of April 5 and April 12
- The application can be found at: <https://hs.iastate.edu/current-students/community/student-ambassadors/>

Questions?